VERMONT MATTERS.

The Brandon Soldiers' Monument.

There was a hearing in Rutland, on Wednesday before Judge Veazey sitting as chancellor in the Brandon soldiers' monument case. The suit was brought by Lieut.-Gov. Ormsbee to restrain the The suit was brought town from erecting the monument upon the site selected in the street in front of the site selected in the street in front of his house, and so near it as to form a seri-ous obstruction. The hearing was to de-termine whether the temporary injunc-tion granted should stand. Judge Veazey decided in favor of the plaintiff, and the injunction remains. This of course does not finally determine the rights of the par-ties, but it will vive time for the parties. ties, but it will give time for the parties to the controversy to cool down; and it is to be hoped that for the credit of their community they will agree upon a site to which there will be less objection.

Narrow Escaps from Drowning.

Joseph Brouillett saved two young boys from almost certain death by drowning at Middlebury Saturday evening. They had got out in the middle of the river some distance above the falls in a row boat and had nothing but a paddle for motive power. The river had been dle for motive power.

greatly swollen by the recent rains and greatly swollen by the recent rains. When greatly swollen by the recent rains and the current was swift and strong. When Mr. Brounlett saw the boys they were drifting helplessly down towards the falls, their paddle being simply useless. Brouillett's boat was near by and hastily getting into it he rowed out to the boys and after a hard pull succeeded in towing them to the shore. Had the boys gone over the falls they would have either been killed or drowned. The "boys were sons of Albert Shaw and Mrs. Wadsworth. worth.

Pauper Arabs in Vermont

Sixty-five pauper Arabs, who were refused permission to land in New York a short time since, were landed at Quebec last week and are now camped within two miles of Derby Line. They will pass through here into the United States They have with them ten per-forming bears, twenty monkeys, several horses supposed to have been stolen and are a filthy, ragged and a desperate crowd, who are foraging on the community.

Heaviest Rain Since 1869.

A White River Junction despatch says The heaviest rain storm here since 1869 occurred Thursday and during Thursday night. Highways are badly washed and many bridges swept away. The damage in this town is estimated at $2000.

Morrisville.

Clifford Tift and Adolphus Noe, while out driving, drove off the bank near S. P. Maxfield's, making a total wreck of the top buggy and harness. The horse was quite seriously injured, but the two boys escaped with a few bruises.

Cambridge.

There will be an excursion from Cambridge, Underhill and Jericho to Willsboro Point, next Tuesday. August 18, via the Burlington & Lamoille railroad and the steamer Reindeer. All friends are invited to join the excursion and enjoy a good time. The steamer will leave the wharf at 11 o'clock. Fare for the round trip from Burlington to Willsboro, forty cents. Tickets for sale at the steamforty cents. Tickets for sale at the steam-boat office on the wharf. Good music will be in attendance. On the same day and on the same steamer there will be a basket picnic from Grand Isle and South Hero to Willsboro.

Middlebury.

Sheriff D. P. Peabody of Rutland county, advertises that he will sell a lot of property which is now in the Cutter marble mill building at public auction in Middlebury on the 27th day of August. It is claimed that the property came into the possession of the Cutter company by a conditional sale from D. Shortsleeves of Rutland and the property of which the conditional sale from D. Snortsleeves of Rutland, and the property of which there is considerable, is to be sold to satisfy Mr. Shortsleeves's claim...Charles R. With-erell has sold to J. W. Fish of New York city his time pair of seven year old bay mares. The mares have shown 2:40 to the pole, and the price paid for them was $1000, delivered on the cars in Middlebury...Mr. James Powell re-turned to Boston Monday to resume his turned to Boston Monday to resume his duties in the custom house there... Mr. John W. Parker has gone for brief visits to New York and Philadelphia, previous to resuming his desk in the pension office in Washington... The ladies of the Addison county W. C. T. U., are not to have the exclusive restaurant privileges at the county fair this year, as they have for the two years last past... A young child of Joseph Calhoun's, aged fifteen months, died Monday morning, after an illness of only one week. only one week only one week.

The annual Addison county fair is advertised to be held here on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, September 1, 2, and 3. Eight hundred dollars in premiums will be distributed, and the annual exhibition of the Vermont Merino Sheep Breeders' association will be held in con-nection with the fair. It is announced that Congressman John W Stewart will deliver the annual address, but this an-nouncement seems to be a mistake...It is understood that, following the recom-mendations of the examining committee, Congressman Stewart has appointed Mr. mendations of the examining committee, Congressman Stewart has appointed Mr. Charles N. Pray of Middlebury to the vacant cadetship at the Annapolis naval academy. Mr. Pray is a bright and ambitious young man who will certainly try his best to make the most of his opportunities... Mr. Cyrus A. Dodge has returned to Syracuse, New York, after having spent the greater part of the summer at his father's in Middlebury... Mrs. Phebe H. Batchelder has returned from her summer vacation in the vicinity of Boston. The Misses Field have returned to town after an absence of some weeks in Provi-The Misses Field have returned to town after an absence of some weeks in Providence, R. I., Mr. John W. Martin is home again, after a month's wandering at the seaside summer resorts. Otter Creek is much higher than it has been before this season, the recent rains having swollen the stream to an extent almost unprecedented at this season of the year. Mr. and Mrs. James O'Connell of Boston are making a visit in town, stopping with making a visit in town, stopping with their relatives, Mr. Leo McCue and Mrs. J. H. Sargent ... Rev. S. L. B. Speare, pastor of the Middlebury Congregational church, has been spending his annual va-cation at New Casco, Maine, but has left meeting at Springfield, Mass... Henry Brown is getting the material ready for a new house on Garfield street... Peter Lander of Burlington was in town over Sunday on a visit to friends.... John Lefferts, Jr., and wife of Brooklyn, N. Y., Mrs. G. L. Vanderbilt and maid of Flatbush, L. I., Wm. N. Verguers, wife and daughter of Philadelphia, Rev. J. P. Strong and Mason R. Strong of Cohoes, N. Y., are in town, the guests of J. J. Ridley.

Franklin.

Mrs. Hattle (Munsell) Moody of Harwick, Mass., is in town on a visit, the guest of Mrs. J. M. Cheney... Mr. Chasfelton has been away attending the temperance camp. meeting at Fort Ticondero.

Toolor is mottled so as to clearly resemble the prairie where it lives.

C. P. Stevens & Co.'s store at Troy was burglarized recently by removing two burglarized recently by removing two panes of glass from a window. Several coats and a lot of cheap jewelry and other goods were stolen. The premises of suspected parties were searched but nothing was found.

East Berkshire was visited by a small sized cyclone on Friday noon last, which took off about a quarter of the roof of a new barn recently built by Mr. Loverin, a short distance from East Berkshire vialing.

The last seven car-loads of the James L.

The Exercises of the Closing Pays—A

Mrs. Hattle (Munsell) Moody of Harwick, Mass., is in town on a visit, the guest of Mrs. J. M. Cheney... Mr. Chas. Felton has been away attending the temperance camp meeting at Fort Ticonderoga... Mrs. H. Gates of this town and Mrs. C. M. Shedd of Burlington are spending a few weeks in North Brookfield, Mass., visiting relatives... The temperance meeting at the Methodist Episcopal church, last Sabbath evening, was well attended, and the address by the pastor, Rev. E. Snow, was a practical, earnest and convincing plea for total abstinence... Mr. Clark Briggs of Racine, Wisconsin, is spending a few weeks in town, visiting friends... Bass fishing in Silver Lake is excellent. Strings of from twenty to fifty pounds or more with single specimens. pounds or more with single specimens weighing from four to six pounds are not pounds or more uncommon.

St. Johnsbury.

The safe in the depot at Lyndonville, was burglarized Monday night, the thieves obtaining $150 thereby. The night operator left the depot as the night train operator left the depot as the night train-came in, and returning twenty minutes later found that the money which was in the safe had disappeared...A. L. Bulley has returned from Old Orchard Beach, Me., where he has been stopping for the past two weeks. Mrs. Balley and her lit-tle daughter remain a week longer...A German by the name of Adolphe Plattner mistook the ferry at Lunenburg across the Coinecticut river for a fording place, and drove into the river. Some men, who were drove into the river. Some men, who were haying near by rescued him from drown-ing. He lost an overcoat and a gold watch was somewhat damaged.

West Randolph,

Burgiars entered Beedle Bros' grocery and fruit store through a window, Monday night. They appeared to be hungry and nelped themselves, but it is not known that they stole anything more than they are. . The Vermont Central Baptist association hold their next annual session here Sentember 2 and 2 A extractive recognition.

Ripton.

There was a very sudden death at Breadloaf Inn, Thesday morning, the 18th. Mrs. Miller from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, one of the guests at Breadloaf, died in a few minutes from the time she was taken ill. Heart disease is supposed to be the cause of death ... Most of the farmers are done haying. They report a fair crop.... The oat and wheat crops will be very good but are lodged badly owing to the recent heavy rains.... There are about one hundred and twenty-five guests at Breadloaf.... Mr. W. L. Boutelle and wife of Providence, R. L., are the guests of R. A. Damon for a few weeks. mon for a few weeks.

Chester W. Bailey's farm residence and parn in Wolcott were burned Tuesday night.

Four tons of fishing-rods were recently shipped to England from Chubb's factory at Post Mills. A rattlesnake four feet long was killed by a picnic party at Inman pond last Sat-urday afternoon. The steam mill of W. H. Billings at Waterbury was burned yesterday. Loss $15,000; insurance $5000.

N. P. Perkins, an aged citizen of Man-chester, fell from the roof of a house while shingling Tuesday, and received serious if not fatal injuries Private parties at Lyndonville propose to bring water into that village from the Whipple brook, to be rented for domestic purposes, used for hydrants, etc.

Joseph A. DeBoer of Albany, New York, a graduate of Dartmouth, has been made principal of the Washington county gram-mar and Montpeller union schools.

There was a land slide on the side of dount Equinox, caused by the recent hard rain. It is about twenty five rods in length by three wide and carried in its course trees, rocks, etc.

Dr. John Sheerar of St. Albans has been appointed aide-de-camp on Brigade Com-mander Kingsley's staff, with the rank of captain. The doctor has seen eleven years' service in the Ransom Guards.

Aleck Campbell of Troy recently sold some sheep to John Young upon which there was a lien. Campbell was arrested but during the momentary absence of his keeper, he escaped and is now in Canada.

Henry Ibee of Alburgh Springs under-took to kidnap Lizzie Bean, sevenjyears old, Saturday. He was captured and kept in custody until Monday morning when he was allowed to go on condition that he eaves the State.

A despatch from Woodstock announces the death of Julius Converse of that town, the venerable Governor of Vermont. The funeral will be attended to day from his late residence in Woodstock. He leaves a widow and a child.

Gilbert Boutwell, an employe of the in-sane asylum, was hit by a heavy rifle ball Saturday night while sitting at his win-dow. The ballet came probably from a sportsman and cut a wound in the shoulder six inches long.

R. M. Billa, a prominent citizen of West Topsham, died Monday, aged seventy-four. In 1853-4 he was a representative to the legislature and later was a State Sena-tor. He was a member of the constitu-

The last seven car-loads of the James L. Ridgley monument for Baltimore, Md., were recently shipped from the granite yards of the White Brothers, Barre. For yards of the White Brothers, Barre. For nearly a year this monument has been in the hands of the workmen, and is the largest ever shipped from Vermont. The entire monument is in fourteen sections, and its weight is about 140 tons. Height of statue 12 feet. The monument complete stands about 41 feet high, and when erected will be one of the uset attractive and ed will be one of the most attractive and massive monuments in the country.

Prof. H. W. Alexander of Brattleboro Prof. H. W. Alexander of Brattleboro died at his father's residence Sunday at the age of 49. He was a gifted musician, beginning at 25 in a Bennington music store, and afterward going to Boston where he taught music in the public schools. He served in a similar position in Chicago. He spent some time abroad perfecting his musical education and recovering from paralysis in the mean time he presented several operas and cantatas to the public. For the past year he had been disabled by a chronic spinal disease that culminated in his death. The funeral will be held to-day. funeral will be held to-day.

THE STORM IN SOUTHERN VERMONT.

Railway and Telegraphic Communication Interrupted-Damages by Lightning.

It is very rarely that such a succession of thunder showers as visited Rutland and vicinity, beginning Wednesday evening, is experienced here, says the Herald. The rainfall was very heavy and the lightring was especially lively around this place. It struck Parick Toomey's barn in the Chaffee district, set it on fire, and Several earnest exhortations were also ate. ...The Vermont Central Baptist association hold their next annual session here September 2 and 3. An extensive programme has been prepared. Several prominent speakers will be present, half fare on the railroads. ...The fruit crop in this vicinity will be very good. Many trees are breaking down under their loads.

Ripton.

Ripton.

There was a very sudden death at Breadloff Inn, Tuesday morning, the 18th. Mrs. Miller from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, one of the ground, with its contents of hay, etc. Fred Gosselin's house on Pine street was struck. The fire was put out, however, with no damage done. E. F. Sadler's barn on Park street was sheld at the strend, lead by the regular service. Riggs of Underhill. This meeting was ling to the roof torn off. A large tree on Forest street was also struck and a part of the roof torn off. A large tree on Forest street was also struck from 1st Kings viii: 21, and the meeting concluded with several exhortations. One young fellow who insisted on smoking inside the circle was arrested, and during the day Nelson Gay a notorious character from Elmore was arrested for selling liquor on the grounds. He was it was burned to the ground, with its coaduring the day Nelson Gay a notorious character from Elmore was arrested for selling liquor on the grounds. He was taken from the gutters afterwards. The continued fail of water raised the streams to an unusual height, gullied roads everywhere in the region and did much damage. The Willow street sewer was unable to do its work and the cellars on Merchants' row from the Bates house to West street were all flooded from one to six inches deep. A great many goods were moved, and there will be a considerable loss in spite of all precautions. The Delaware and Hudson was the only one of the railroads to suffer much. The 5:15 train from Whitehall had to stop while sand was shoveled off the track, and landslides and washouts prevented the later trains from getting in at all on either line. The 5:40 train out gave it up after going a little way and came back. On the Central Vermont, however, a washout was threatened, half a mile north of Sutherland Falls depot. The earth was washed away on each side of the track for a short distance, and it was feared that more rain would make serious trouble there. Televisian street from Elmore was arrested for selecting in the grounds. He was taken to Hyde Park jail. Several slightly intoxicated persons were seen but no serious disturbance was made. Between the serious disturbance was made. Between the serious disturbance was a greeted for selecting disturbance was a flood in the track gold and the cellars on the grounds. The attendance Tuesday was quite small, as was expected. A young people's meeting was held at the stand at 9:30 a.m. led by Rev. Mr. Ryde of Colchester, from St. Mark vii: 32. Rev. Mr. Hyde of Berkshire opened with prayer. A. A. Niles, treasurer, reported the state of the association finances, showing that from last year it had reciprosed to the state of the state The farm buildings belonging to Cook and Willey at St. Johnsbury were struck by lightning and burned yesterday afternoon.

The trustees of the Pittsford academy have engaged L. E. Partridge of Ludlow as principal. The fall term will begin September I.

Bates's horse barn at Pittsford, was struck by lightning Monday evening and burned with some six tons of hay. It was insured for $100.

N. P. Perkins, an agadetize of Additional Fourth-Class Posture. distance, and it was feared that more rain would make serious trouble there. Tele-

Vermont.

Vermont was favored with another grist of new fourth-class postmasters Monday.

ments is as follows:

Somerset, Windham county, Mrs. M.
Sutton, vice V. S. Wheeler: West Fairlee,
Orange county, J. M. Eastman, vice E. P.
George, West Townshend, Windham county, S. E. Williams, vice L. M. Page:
Waitsfield, Washington county, L. R. Joslyn, vice R. J. Gleason: Dorset, Bennington county, J. M. Armstrong, vice G. M.
Sykes: Norwich, Windsor county, L. S.
Partridge, vice T. L. Olds: Corinth,
Orange county, G. C. Cook, vice C. E. Targent: Roxbury, Washington county, F. Orange county, G. C. Cook, vice C. E. Targent: Roxbury, Washington county, F. W. Roys, vice O. M. Pratt: East Corinth, Orange county, E. S. Rowland, vice R. F. Fuelten; Westminster, Windham county, B. F. Sleeper, vice A. Goodridge, Essex Junction, Chittenden county, G. R. Beach, vice E. A. Beach, South Albany, Orleans county, W. L. Dow, vice Mrs. L. R. Page; Chelsea, Orange county, E. R. Hyde, vice J. B. Bacon; Marshfield, Washington county, George Wooster, vice W. H. H. Means; Salisbury, Addison county, K. K. Howard, vice H. Kinsman; Enosburg Falls, Franklin county, D. C. Isham, vice A. R. Bell; St. Johnsbury Center, Caledonia, B. Wright, vice W. F. Kelley; Baron Landing, Orleans county, H. S. Webter, vice A. C. Parker.

church commenced at the Spring Grove camp grounds, New Haven, Tuesday, The meeting is in charge of Rev. J. W. Bennett, P. E. The opening services were necessarily somewhat informal and con necessarily somewhat informal and consisted of a prayer and praise service. Three regular services will be held daily, at 10 a, m., 2 and 7 o'clock p, m. At 1 o'clock there will be meetings especially for the children and the usual prayer meetings will be held at 1 and 6 p, m.

The grounds have been noticeably improved this year, and several new cottages have been erected. The tendency seems to be towards the ferection of commodious and handsome cottages to the exclusion of Exercises of the Closing Days-A Large Attendance.

The attendance at Saturday evening's service was much larger than on any previous evening. Rev. Peter Merrill of Enosburgh Falls spoke from Acts xvi:

In regard to the missionary meeting held in the afternoon a correction should be made. Mrs. J. D. Beeman made the address of the meeting and other remarks and letters of interest were read by Miss Pomeroy, secretary of the district auxilliary, and Mr. H. W. Hyde, secretary of the camp meeting auxiliary, of the W. F. M. S.

As is always the case, Sunday was the day of the series and there was a large at-tendance and there were services on the grounds The love-feast held before the stand at 9 a. m., was well attended and enjoyed by all. At 10:30 a. m., Rev. H. A. Bushnell of Cambridge, preached the morning sermon from the text. Matthew xi ;28. Rev. Peter Merrill of Enosburgh Falls and Presiding Elder Morgan of St. Albans followed with brief remarks in the line of exhortation. At 1:30 p. m., a prayer scrvice was held at the stand, preceding the regular service beginning at 2 p. m., Rev. Mr. Morgan presented. Rev. J. D. Beeman, president of the Montpelier Seminary, as the speaker of the afternoon. Mr. Beeman's sermon was from the text Galatians 6th, 7th and 8th verses, and held the close attention of the immense andience, The love-feast held before the stand made, the altar services holding for a long Hyde, railroad agent.

The usual number of members from the several charges were elected. Rev. M. P. Bell, was elected chairman of the executive committee. The regular preaching service was held in the afternoon, Rev. Clark Wedgeworth of Bakersfield being the first speaker. Rev. Mr. Clark followed the sermon with an exhortation.

Banacks by Ray R. Morgan, presiding the first speaker of the steamer "Jarvis Lord," loaded with iron ore, on Monday morning, while off the aday or two or until the order shall be the first speaker of the steamer "Jarvis Lord," loaded with iron ore, on Monday morning, while off the very speaker of the steamer "Jarvis Lord," loaded with iron ore, on Monday morning, while off the very speaker of the very large to handle Wabash cars, in consequence of which all Wabash freight will be side-tracked.

130 p. m.—Nothing has yet been received from any point in this State of any trouble growing out of yesterday's order they will, it is thought, refuse to handle Wabash cars, in consequence of which all Wabash freight will be side-tracked.

130 p. m.—Nothing has yet been received from any point in this State of any trouble growing out of yesterday's order, which all wabash freight will be side-tracked.

130 p. m.—Nothing has probability nothing will occur for a day or two or until the order shall have reached at least the principal points.

The seventh annual campmeeting of the Union Temperance association of Vermont opened at Morrisville Tuesday afternoon, Of those superceded, V. S. Wheeler at with President Rev. W. J. Johnson of Of those superceded, V. S. Wheeler at Somerset was alone in resigning. The others were removed. The list of appointments is as follows:

Somerset, Windham county, Mrs. M. Sutton, vice V. S. Wheeler: West Fairlee, Orange county, J. M. Eastman, vice E. P. George, West Townshend, Windham county, S. E. Williams, vice L. M. Page: V. V. as the sneaker of the afternoon. presented Rev. D. B. McKenzie of Mooers, N. Y., as the speaker of the afternoon. Mr. McKenzie spoke upon temperance as connected with the political affairs of the State of New York and the nation. This closed the day's exercises.

a choir selection. President Johnson introduced the speaker of the evening, Rev. H. A. Cooke, paster of the evening, Rev. H.

A. Cooke, paster of the Seamen's Bethel in Boston, who from his peculiar experience in the temperance work was able to offer many practical suggestions. At the conclusion of the address the president made a few remarks in closing. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. N. W. Wilder of Essey.

The weather yesterday forenoon was beautiful and at about 10:30 a. m. the regon Landing, Orleans county, H. S. Webtter, vice A. C. Parker.

The New Haven Camp Meeting.

The annual campmeeting of the Burlington district of the Methodist Episcopa 1

The Member Camp Meeting of the Burlington district of the Methodist Episcopa 1

The speaker alluded to the temperance work in Washington and interestingly referred to the war for the union, comparing it with the present struggle for national temperance, and ended with an eloquent appeal for personal work and interest in temperance matters. President Johnson then presented the Rev. Dr. Bolton of Boston, who sang a solo. Rev. Dr. Steele of New York, pro-cauron, nas been spending his annual vacation at New Casco, Maine, but has left there for visits to other points previous to his return home. Mr. George E. Marshall and party have returned home after a summer outing at Lake George and in the Adirondack woods.

Bristol.

W. R. Peak and wife started Monday afternoon for an extened trip in the west-tern country. Miss Hattle Bissonett has been engaged as teacher in the primary department of the graded school. The graded school. The graded school. The graded school and common two inchers and last Saturday evening was well attended. It is about two inches and last Saturday evening was well attended. Several of our citizens are attending camp. The proceeds amounted to some $30...

CONN. FIGUR PEACE SOCIETY. Annual Me Log at Mystic Compliment-

NEW LOS 4, Aug. 19.-The Nineteenth annua, meeting of the Connecticut Peace society was opened at Mystic to-day. Resolutions were adopted recommending education for Indians, encouraging arbitrations, recommending abolition of standing armies, submittal of differences of labor andcapital to arbitration, and that the military system must be condemned in every shape and form. A resolution in memory of General Grant commending the words, "Let us have peace," was ad-opted. Dr. Towne submitted the follow-ing which was adopted:

Mystic, Conn., Aug. 19.—Grover Cleveland, President of the United States, Washington, D. C. The Connectient Peace society now in session, with several thousand present, gravefully acknowledge your recent acts of justice to the Indians.

(Signed) Z. CROUCH, President.

After other remarks the session closed. The meeting will be continued to morrow.

INDIAN MURDERERS CAPTURED.

Bernard Fremont's Murderers Captured and Taken to Battleford. WINNEPEG, Man., Aug. 18.-A Battleford despatch says: On Friday morning last a party of mounted police, in charge of Sergeant Bagley, went to the Stoney reserve to bring in four Indians, impli cated in the murder of Bernard Fremont in April last. They returned at noon with them. All the captured crowd consisted of a Qu'Appelle Indian named "Visitor," and three Eagle Hill Stonies, "Black Blanket," "White Ox" and a younger brother of "Man-Without Blood," The man who fired the fatal shot, "Visitor," was the prime mover in the crime, as it was he who urged "Man-Without-Blood" to shoot. The others were standing by as consenting parties, and had taken no steps to inform against the ones who were more immediately guilty.

Regatta at Fort Monroe, Va.

FORT MONDOE, Va., Aug. 19.-The re gatta to day was a complete success, the water being perfectly smooth. The junior singles was won by Nowlan of the Al banys, time 11.10; Latrobe of the Nor-folks second. The junior double was won by the Albany Rowing club; time 10 min-nies; New York Athletic club second. The junior four oar gig was won by the Norfolks in 9 minutes; Columbias second. The senior four oared shells was won by the Washington Rowing club, time 8.40; Columbias second. The ten mile canoe race was a telious affair as the breeze was light. It was won by the Cape Charles', club, time 6 nours.

Money was raised to-night for the pro-fessional race to-morrow, which is likely to prove one of the most exciting ever know in these waters, banys, time 11.10; Latrobe of the Nor-know in these waters.

On Trial for Shooting His Father.

GREENFIELD, Mass., Aug. 19.-In the Superior Court to-day the trial of Wm. Prentiss of Orange, for shooting his father, came up. About three months ago Gilbert Prentiss, the father, was drunk for several weeks. Late at night he en-tered his son's house intoxicated and in-sisted that his son should fire a shotgun at a tin cup which the old man held on his own head. The son fired, instantly blow-ing out the old man's brains. The de-fense is that William did not know the gun was loaded, and in fact had been told it was not, and when urged by his father thought it would humor him by pointing the gun at the cup. The trial is not fin-ished.

the Manetous. The "Jarvis Lord" sprung a leak and made water so rapidly that the pumps were useless. About I o'clock when within two miles of Glenhaven, the steamer was abandoned, and sunk, steri first, in forty tathoms of water. The crew narrowly escaped with their lives in small boats. The steamer and cargo are a total loss. She was valued at 832,000 and owned in Cleveland. She is said to be insured for $28,000 in New York.

Ohio Democratic State Convention.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 19.-The delegates to the Democratic State convention commenced to arrive to day and it is though all the delegates will be here by evening. The indications point to a large gather ing. It is thought the old ticket will be connected with the political affairs of the State of New York and the nation. This closed the day's exercises.

The services at the State temperance campmeeting at Morrisville Tuesday were as follows: Prayer was offered by Rev. Clark Wedgeworth of Bakersfield. After a choir selection, President Johnson introduced the speaker of the evening, Rev. H. on any other. held to morrow.

$10,000 Race at Hartford, Conn.

HARTFORD, Conn., Aug. 19.-The great $10,000 race was opened to day. All of the thirteen horses entered (except De Barry) came on the track and none were distanced or drawn. Four heats were trotted without deciding the contest and fifth was essayed, but after the horses had scored several times the final heat was postponed. The following is the time of heats and winners: First heat, Joe Davis, 2:18½ second, Joe Davis, 2:19; third, Adelaide, 2:22; fourth, Kenilworth, 2:22½.

Would Not Heed a Warning.

HARTFORD, Conn., Aug. 19.-Lawrence McCormick of Plainville was struck by the cars near Berlin on the Consolidated road last night and died this morning. He had been walking on the track and had been seen and warned by a brakeman on a train early in the evening. Mary A. Malone of Newington was killed by the cars on the New England road the same night at Platts station.

Ely's Cream Baim was recommended to me by my druggist as a preventive to Hay Fever. Have been using it as directed since the 9th of August an I have found it a specific for that much dreaded and loathsome disease. For ten years or more I have been a great sufferer each year, from August 9th till frost, and have tried many alleged remedies for its cure, but Ely's Cream Baim is the only preventive I have ever found. Hay fever sufferers ought to know of its efficacy. F. H. Ainsworth & Co., Publishers, Indianapolis, Ind.

NUMBER 8

CANON FARRAR WILL COME HE WILL PAY A VISIT TO AMERICA.

Places and People Whom He Will Visit-Subjects He Will Speak On in Boston-To Remain Until the Last of November.

Boston, Aug. 19.-From a letter written by Canon Farrar of Westminster Abbey and received in this city, the following particulars of his coming visit to this country are gleaned: The archdeacon will be accompanied by two friends, the venerable Archdeacon Vesey and a brother of Jean Ingelow, the poetess. Canon Farrar's object is to see the country and visit some friends on this side of the water. He will land at Quebec about September 11, and after a few days sight-seeing in Canada, will go via Niagara Falls to Chicago. From that city he goes to Baltimore, where he has an engagement to deliver the opening address before the Johns Hopkins University. He will go thence to Philadelphia and Washington and will be present at the church congress which meets at New Haven October 20. From there he will go to New York and Boston. In the latter city he will spend two weeks with Phillips Brooks. In Philadelphia and Boston he will give three lectures to divinity students and ministers by special request, which will be purely theological. While in this country Canon Farrar will probably accept a few invitations to give public lectures in the large cities. His subjects are: "Dante," "The Talmud and its Authors," and "Browning, the Poet." The Redpath lyceum burean of Boston and Chicago will arrange his lecture dates. Canon Farrar will leave America by the last of November at the latest. some friends on this side of the water.

ALL REMAINS QUIET ON THE WABASH

Railroads not Affected as yet by the Order of the Knights of Labor-A Strike of the Glass Workers at Pittsburg Threatened.

St. Louis, Aug. 19.-The action of the national executive committee of the Knights of Labor in issuing a general order to the Knights employed on roads west of the Mississippi prohibiting the handling or repairing of the Wabash rolling stock has been followed by no serious results to-day. Members of the executive committee, which is in session here, are of the opinion that the full force of the order will not be felt by railroads for several days yet. Telegrams have been received by them from different points of the State from branch assemblies of the national organization endorsing the issuance of the general order and indicating their intention to stand by it. Meetings of the Knights all through the west will be held as soon as the order is received by them, and it is expected that concerted action will be taken by them by the 21st inst. at the latest, T. J. Russell of the committee says that the resolutions calling for the impeach-ment of United States Judges Brewer, Treat and Knekel will be carried out if possible. Congressman Warner and Gen. Palmer will draw up articles of impeach-ment which will be introduced in Congressment which will be introduced in Congress ment which will be infroduced in Congress and pushed with all the influence which the Knights can command. Trouble is expected at Kansas City shortly. The number of yard and trainmen at that point are Knights and in obedience to yester-day's order they will, it is thought, refuse to handle Wabash cars, in consequence of which all Wabash cars, in consequence of have reached at least the principal points on the roads which it names.

DENVER, Col., Aug. 19.—No action has thus far been taken by the Knights of Labor in the employ of the Union Pacific upon the St. Loms order. The Wahash freights are being handled as usual. Railroad officials claim that the order will be ignored by the Union Pacific Knights. GALVESTON, Aug. 19.-The strike on the Wabash system has not affected the Gould lines at this point or any other point in Texas thus far heard from at oon to-day THAT WHISKEY SEIZURE.

The Government's Action with Philadel-phia Firms Handling the Stuff.

PRILADELPHIA, Aug. 18.-In regard to the recent seizure of a large quantity of whiskey shipped to this city from Peoria, Ill., which was alleged to have been put into fraudulently constructed barrels, with the intention of defrauding the government, it is learned an order was received in this city to-day from Washington ordering the release of all whiskey consigned by Woolner Bros., and also that the consignments of the Manhattan Distilling company had been released by a compromise, whereby the distilling company are to pay a tax upon one gallon of whiskey in each eighty-three barcompromise, whereby the disthing company are to pay a tax upon one gallon of whiskey in each eighty-three barrels out of one hundred shipped by them, with the understanding that they would file a claim in the United States courts to recover the extra tax so paid. The shipments of the Great Western Distilling company and Zell. Swalbacher & Co., are still detained, pending investigation by the revenue officials. It is understood that there are upwards of 4000 barrels of whiskey which will be affected by this action of the government and it is thought the entire matter will be compromised and then taken into the courts. The wholesale liquor men of Philadelphia, representing a capital of $20,000,000, have addressed a letter to the revenue collector of this district concerning the alleged fraudulently constructed barrels, claiming the packages are regularly made and informing him that unless they are permitted to pursue their business without further interruption they will bring action against the government for damout further interruption they will bring action against the government for damages sustained.

Looking for a Dynamiter.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.-The government inspector of steamboats at Wilmington, Del., has found conclusive evidence that the Felton's boiler was wrecked by a dynamite cartridge placed near it. Part of the apparatus was also discovered. The police are now looking for a suspicious charac-ter who is believed to have placed the car-tridge on the boat.